RULES AND REGULATIONS PURPOSE

A. To offer students of member teachers of NATS:

1. Encouragement toward more diligent study in the preparation of appropriate repertoire;
2. An opportunity to perform under conditions designed to provide the most complete and total consideration for the student, and one which will ideally combine the best elements of non- competitive and competitive performance;
3. A specific goal, stimulating the desire and incentive for vocal and musical self-improvement;
4. An opportunity to sing before qualified and impartial judges, and to receive careful and constructive criticism;
5. Opportunities for public appearance by outstanding students;
6. Recognition of achievement and talent by appropriate awards.

B. To provide opportunities for professional growth for NATS members through the sharing of ideas, encountering new repertoire, hearing other teachers' students on an annual basis, and participating in carefully considered evaluations.

ELIGIBILITY AND PROCEDURE

C. Any student currently studying with an active member in good standing at the national and district or chapter level of NATS is eligible.

D. If the student has been studying with the sponsoring teacher for less than eight (8) months, acknowledgment must be made of the student's former vocal study both on the application and in any public announcements. The NATS Code of Ethics provides that "It is unethical to claim as a pupil one having studied less than eight months with a teacher except where there has been no previous training."

E. All registration and payment of fees for teachers, performers and accompanists must be done online only at www.nats.org. Hard copies and checks are not accepted. You can find registration instructions once you have logged into your NATS account.

Registration and payment of fees must be completed by end of day February 10, 2022

F. Teachers must be available to adjudicate in the Auditions. All teachers who enter students must be available to adjudicate the Preliminary and Semi-Final/Runoff Rounds. If unable to commit the time to adjudicate, the teacher must secure a qualified substitute judge (and inform the Governor/Auditions Coordinator) OR indicate on Auditionware/contact Kathy Price (kprice@rider.edu) that you are unable to judge and pay the appropriate fee ($50). If the teacher neither judges nor pays the fee nor secures a replacement, they will not be allowed to enter students in this auditions' festival in the following year. In addition, a waiver may be granted for no more than two consecutive years, after which time the teacher must attend the Auditions in order to enter students.

G. NATS members may enter only their own students in the Auditions. Entering another teacher's students, for whatever reason, is unethical and will result in the disqualification of all concerned.

H. The auditioning student and his/her teacher are responsible for making arrangements for accompaniment. The guidelines for accompanists are outlined in the Video Submission Guidelines on the NATS.org website. A list of acceptable accompaniment options is included.

I. All singers and accompanists must perform from lawful editions and observe and obey copyright laws. Please contact the conference chair if you have any questions regarding copyright requirements. Refer to the NATS

Policy on Copyright Laws for more information found at www.nats.org/copyright_info.html.

J.All selections must be sung from memory, excluding oratorio/mass/Requiem/cantata arias.

NOTE: Any student may, with the teacher's permission, choose to sing for comment only within any classification. This information should be indicated during the registration process and on the adjudication sheets. No restriction on age or length of study should apply. The student will be permitted to sing all prepared selections, provided they fall within time guidelines.

NJ NATS AUDITIONS CLASSIFICATIONS AND REQUIREMENTS

All music must be sung from memory, apart from oratorio, mass, Requiem, and cantata arias.

Substitutions in the list are permitted as long as the requirements are met and the Auditions Coordinator is notified before the Audition.

Music Theater Audition Terminology

Memorization	All repertoire must be sung from memory.
Original Languages	Selections must be sung in original language or in translation if warranted by common performance practice.
Transposition	Published transpositions of musical theatre songs are permitted, but singers are expected to retain the composer's intended style of music and to convey the essence of the character portrayed in the larger work. Performances not fulfilling these requirements may result in lower scores from adjudicators.
Judicious Cuts	As found in common professional performance practice, cuts in piano introductions, piano interludes, piano music after the vocal solo is completed, and dance breaks in musical theatre selections are allowed. In the case of numerous verses, some verses may be cut.

Music Theater Selections	Repertoire is chosen from musicals (including film musicals), revues, operettas or music theater song cycles all of which are written or intended for 1 fully realized musical production; and music theater song literature. Only one of the required selections may be chosen from operetta or music theater song literature.
Fully Realized Production	A fully realized production includes blocking/acting, dance, costumes, sets, pit orchestra or piano, lighting, sound, or a combination of the aforementioned elements.
Revues	Revues should thread back to the original production.
Music Theater Styles	Repertoire should ensure that selections represent the spectrum of their vocal and dramatic abilities. This should be exhibited by selecting pieces of varying style periods: pop/rock, contemporary, and golden age, employing a multiplicity of vocal styles (belt, mix, legit).
Comment Only	Any student may register to sing for comments only and participate in the preliminary audition round.

Classical Audition Terminology

Aria	An aria is a solo taken from an opera, oratorio, mass, cantata, zarzuela, operetta, or works titled “concert aria.” Oxford Online definitions will be used for the purposes of this audition. For example, Purcell’s selections from the semi-operas and masques are considered songs.
24/26/28 Italian Art Songs and Arias	The repertoire found in the 24/26/28 Italian Art Songs and Arias collections may be counted as an aria or an art song in the high school and lower college classical categories. For the singers in the upper college categories and beyond, these pieces may count as an art song ONLY, regardless of origin. Any repertoire found outside of these collections will be considered only as the composer intended, as an art song OR aria.
Memorization	All repertoire, excluding oratorio/mass/Requiem/cantata arias, must be sung from memory.
Original Languages	Selections should be sung in original language or in translation if warranted by common performance practice.

Transposition	All arias from opera, oratorio, mass, cantata, operetta, works titled “concert aria,” or music theater selections must be sung in the original or standard published key.
Art song in English	English must be the original language of the art song.
Repertoire/Categories	The word “classical” in this context refers to art songs and arias from the “classical” genre, not limited to the “Classical” period of Mozart and Haydn. In other words, no music theater, pop, soul, jazz, rhythm and blues, etc. Published arrangements of folk songs, spirituals, and traditional hymn tunes in English are widely accepted as a part of the classical genre. Students in classical categories may present one selection of this type to fulfill the English art song requirement.
Judicious Cuts	Piano introductions, piano interludes, piano music after the vocal solo is completed, and internal cuts of opera arias and music theater selections are allowed as in common performance practice. Cuts of verse or verses of selections are not allowed. In the case of strophic pieces, all verses should remain that are traditionally included.
Comment Only	Any student may register to sing for comments only and participate in the preliminary audition round.
